

Hitler & the Christi-Cons

The atheists are out in force...
And with agnostics, too, of course,
To blame a worldwide deep remorse
Upon all Christians as its source.

Conservatives they also claim
With Christians, too, must share the blame
For things mankind must kill or maim,
And use these words to prove the shame:

“Now...Hitler was conservative,
Respected as a Christian, too,
He was so very sensitive
To animals like me and you.

He offed the Jews so thoughtfully,
Tattooed their arms, you see, just so,
Thus when they rose St. Mike could see
Their class...and tell them where to go.

He slaughtered Poles and Slovaks, too,
They genuflected at his groin...
He was their savior...God's love true,
And sent them with the Jews to join.

For God he made the super-race –
The Reich of third...a thousand years,
Its sad misfire he had to face...
Its tenure...just a dozen years.

But as a Christian, not unbowed,
Conservative and duty-bound,
He wasted millions – quite a crowd,
When he (through prayer?) God's will had found.

So...Christian Cons within this land
Have Adolph as their paradigm
To do God's will and take a stand...
Bring Armageddon in our time.”

And thus the unbelievers rail...
All Christian thought they quite assail,
But offer nothing with their wail,
Except their nothingness...and fail!
