

I Love You More

I love you more than choco-chips
Or veggie-soup that you can fix,
I love you more than tater-chips
Or crispy salads that you mix!

I love you more than Dvorak's air,
Beethoven's Fifth, Vivaldi's Spring,
Church anthems sweet, Malotte's Lord's Prayer
Or all the hymns that we can sing.

You see, I love you more than all
Those things combined that hold me thrall,
Your ways the doom and gloom forestall...
My love for you...THAT does enthrall.
